2. Applying the wage tax deduction

The wage tax deduction is a discount on the wage tax/premium national insurance. Your employer automatically applies for the deduction. However, the deduction can only be applied by one employer at a time (normally this is the employer at which you earn most).

If you fill in yes or no, the date can only be the date of when your contract starts. So if your contract starts for example January 1st, please fill in this date.
